

ELIZABETH CITY STATE UNIVERSITY
Towing Policy

Any vehicle found illegally or improperly parked on University property may be towed and placed in storage at the discretion of the Campus Police Department. Officers may exercise this authority as they deem necessary to insure safe traffic flow and compliance with the ordinances and regulations governing vehicular movement and parking on campus.

The University is not responsible for any vehicle damage resulting from towing or storage; and the owner/operator of the towed vehicle is directly liable for payment of reasonable fees to the towing/storage company in connection with such action. (The University does not collect or pay towing charges.)
