Greetings ECSU Alumni:

I am honored to welcome you to Homecoming 2014 – There’s No Place Like Homecoming! The ECSU Homecoming Committee has planned a variety of festive events to ensure that your return home is memorable. I look forward to greeting you at several of these activities.

As you stroll across the campus grounds this week, I encourage you to reflect on your ECSU collegiate experience. Consider the students who now walk the path you trod. Greet them and impart a word of wisdom as a means of encouraging these future Viking alumni to pursue academic excellence so that they are prepared to make a positive impact in their communities, professions, and the world – just as you have.

While you are with fellow alumni, discuss the power of your collective talents, time, and financial support in preserving the rich legacy of your alma mater. Encourage them to sport proudly your Viking colors, recalling that ROYAL BLUE represents trust and loyalty and WHITE represents wholeness and completeness. Pledge to use these attributes to make a noticeable difference in the months ahead.

Most of all, as part of the dawning of a new day at ECSU, join me in support of the Mighty Vikings football team as they face the Chowan University Hawks on the gridiron at Roebuck Stadium. Whether you are under the tailgating tents or in the stands – and I certainly hope it’s both, let’s cheer our team to a Viking victory.

Mighty Vikings, there really is no place like home, and I thank you for returning to yours.

With Viking pride,

Stacey Franklin Jones
Chancellor
Ranked #1 For the third consecutive year, Washington Monthly’s (2012, 2013, and 2014 college issue) ranked ECSU #1 among baccalaureate colleges.

FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE
ECSU NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC.

There’s No Place Like Homecoming!

Dear Fellow Vikings and Friends:

It is indeed a great time to be a Viking! On behalf of the ECSU NAA, Incorporated, I am delighted to welcome you to an amazing weekend of homecoming activities. With a new addition to the Viking community – Chancellor Stacey Franklin Jones, we are hyped to network, fellowship, and celebrate our past successes and to gear up for a much anticipated ECSU renaissance.

Whether you are here for a reunion or just to participate in the festive events planned for your enjoyment, we promise there is something for everyone including the Ms. Alumni Coronation, the Alumni Icebreaker, and the Saturday Night Cabaret-The Ultimate V.I.P. Experience. Don’t hesitate to peruse the entire homecoming listing to find other activities that might pique your interest!

Of course, the greatest attraction will be gridiron battle featuring the ECSU Vikings and the Chowan University Hawks and, needless to say, a lot of tailgating. With a high impact squad this year, we are looking forward to nothing less than a Viking victory.

Win or lose, however, we will end our activities on Sunday with a Prayer Breakfast, which will include the soul-stirring music of the Alumni Choir and an inspirational message that will truly lift your spirits. You don’t want to miss it!

As always, we are delighted to have you home. Enjoy the weekend!

With Viking pride,

Jeanette H. Evans, Ed.D. (’63)
President

~ ECSU Alumni: Living, Learning, and Leading ~
Greetings from the Director of Alumni Relations:

Are you ready to join your Viking Family for Homecoming 2014! If so, I hope you are prepared for a week of festivities planned especially for you. As you may be aware, the theme this year is: There’s No Place Like Homecoming! We look forward to welcoming all of our distinguished alumni back for an exciting week filled with special memories.

Please take a moment to review this publication for information on activities and events taking place during the 2014 Homecoming Celebration. It will provide you with details on cost and location of our special events, a profile of Ms. Alumni and Court, along with a pictorial view of the fun we experienced in 2013.

There’s nothing like a Viking Homecoming and the only thing needed to make it complete is YOUR PARTICIPATION! Your involvement is important to the success of our university and our students. Elizabeth City State University is special to all of us, and I hope you will take the time to share with our students what ECSU means to you.

Enjoy your visit, and do not hesitate to let us know if there is anything we can do to make your visit more pleasurable.

With Viking Pride!

Barbara B. Sutton

THE
ALMA MATER

To thee Dear Alma Mater,
A tribute song we sing,
Of thy true worth to all of us
O may we honor bring.

Hail to thy lovely halls, ECSU
We'll hear when duty calls, ECSU
Faithful and ever true, we'll be to you.
For in our hearts, we'll still love thee ECSU.

So now we'll join together
For thee O State to work
Let none of us be faint at heart
Nor any duty shirk.
On behalf of the 2014-2015 Student Government Association, we would like to welcome you to the beautiful campus of Elizabeth City State University—Home of the Mighty Vikings! We are elated that you were able to join us for another electrifying Viking Homecoming. While you are here with us, we hope you will enjoy all of the events we have planned with each and every one of you in mind. We would like to thank you for your continued support and outpour of Viking Love. Without your encouragement, we would not stand tall as Mighty Vikings today. As student leaders, we strive not only to be the voice of our student body, but also to bring new and innovative ideas to our university. This is why we are operating under the motto, “We Aim to Do M.O.R.E” (Making Our Resources Efficient). We hope this objective will be clearly portrayed to you while visiting our illustrious university. Always remember, “There’s no place like HOMECOMING.”

Homecoming is a memorable time for the Elizabeth City State University Community. To help you enjoy the Viking Pride Spirit of Homecoming, here are some safety tips for you, your friends, and your family members.

Personal Safety

1. Wear comfortable shoes and appropriate clothing. With limited parking, walking is the preferred way to get to most of the events on campus.
2. If in a group, have a designated meeting point or a re-unification plan in case of emergency.
3. If you intend to consume alcohol and can legally do so (age 21+ and at a permitted event), make sure you have a designated driver and a way to safely return home.
4. Use the “Buddy System.” When with friends at a party or event, agree to watch out for each other and leave the event together.
5. Always avoid walking alone in isolated areas, such as parking lots and taking short cuts.
6. Be aware of what is going on around you at all times. If you suspect you are being followed, indicate your suspicion by looking behind you. Change your direction or vary your speed. Call University Police from your cell phone. Do not confront anyone following you.
7. If confronted by someone trying to victimize you, try to obtain a good physical description of the subject to give to the police.

Property Safety

1. Keep your personal identification and credit cards to a minimum.
2. Always secure your residence hall doors and windows. Do not prop doors open or leave unlocked for any period of time.
3. Do not allow unauthorized persons to enter into residence halls behind you.
4. Report unauthorized visitors immediately to the residence hall officials and University Police.
5. Secure all valuables in the trunk of vehicles, not in the visible passenger area of the vehicle.

ECSU VETERANS DAY CEREMONY
November 11, 2014

Call the Veterans Resource Center TODAY at 252.335.3774 or visit us online at www.ecsu.edu/veterans/index.cfm.
Nestled in history. Steeped in charm.

There's a reason we're called the "Harbor of Hospitality".

Walk in the footsteps of history.
Revel in the discovery of art.
Paddle your kayak on the water.

Simply put, there's so much to see and do in Elizabeth City. Outdoors, indoors, shopping, dining, it's all here. Make a weekend of it. Accommodations range from hotels and motels to cozy inns and B&Bs.

So why are you waiting?
