Greetings

From the Chancellor of Elizabeth City State University

Dear Fellow Vikings and Friends,

On behalf of the faculty, staff and students of Elizabeth City State University, it is always a pleasure to extend a “Mighty Vikings” welcome to all who have joined us for Homecoming, 2012. As we celebrate the 66th year of homecoming, we are indeed pleased to have alumni and friends return to the campus to enjoy Viking fellowship while renewing acquaintances. We are extremely pleased to have the Chowan Hawks of Chowan University join us on the gridiron during this exciting weekend.

A special note of gratitude to the 2012 Homecoming Committee for their hard work towards making sure this homecoming is “one to remember” and that each attendee has the opportunity to “Live in the Viking Experience”. To all of our fans, thank you for your attendance and continued support of our alma mater.

With Much Viking Pride,

Willie J. Gilchrist, Ed.D.
October, 2012

Greetings!

It is a pleasure for me to extend personally, as well as on behalf of the Elizabeth City Council and the residents our community, a most cordial welcome to Elizabeth City State University's alumni, guests and friends for Homecoming 2012!

Backed by the tradition of proven hospitality and excellent facilities, we consider it our privilege to provide an inviting atmosphere as you visit your Alma Mater! There are many cultural and recreational resources in our community and I encourage you to take advantage of them during your stay. We are looking forward to crisp autumn days and the excitement of the many events being held during Homecoming Week.

We hope you thoroughly enjoy your weekend with us in Elizabeth City, the "Harbor of Hospitality.” Go Vikings!

With warmest regards,

Joseph W. Peel
Mayor

From the President of the ECSU National Alumni Assoc., Inc.

Welcome to Homecoming 2012

Alumni and Friends, I am delighted to welcome you to Homecoming 2012 – It’s All the Way Live! Like most of the Mighty Vikings, I am sure you are anxious to join fellow alumni and our university community for another weekend of festive and celebratory activities.

Thanks to a newly established Homecoming Planning Committee, you should see an improvement in our homecoming itinerary with everything planned with you in mind. From the ECSU Foundation Golf Classic (hosted by the Raleigh-Durham-Wake Alumni Chapter), which kicked off our homecoming activities on October 12, to the NAA’s culminating prayer breakfast on Sunday, October 21, we are here to ensure that you have an exciting experience.

As you reunite with classmates and visit with favorite professors, we encourage you also to take the time to visit our new facilities. ECSU is indeed on the move! Needless to say, we appreciate the role you have played in keeping alive the rich traditions of our great university through your involvement and support.

Again, welcome back and enjoy the festivities!

ECSU POINTS of PRIDE

U.S. News and World Report Rank:
ECSU has earned national acclaim for its academic advances: Between 1999 and 2012, ECSU repeatedly earned national acclaim in U.S. News and World Report Magazine's ranking of best colleges in the south. The U.S. News and World Report's 2012 Edition of Best Colleges ranked ECSU as second in the Top Public Schools Regional Colleges (South) category and #14 among the nation's Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

Washington Monthly Rank:

Air Viking I and II:
Elizabeth City State University celebrated the arrival of Air Viking I (2010) and Air Viking II (2011), a new, a single engine airplane (172 SP Model Cessna Skyhawk) which was purchased for the purpose of training aviation science students.

Athletics:
Since 2005, ECSU student athletes have earned a respectable collection of championship trophies in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association: the softball and baseball teams (2005); basketball (Vikings 2007); volleyball (Lady Vikings 2007); bowling (Lady Vikings 2009). ECSU teams won two CIAA Northern Division titles: football (Vikings 2011) and bowling (Lady Vikings 2011).

Community Development Program HUD Grant:
U.S. Housing and Urban Development Secretary awarded nearly $2.4 million to Historically Black Colleges and Universities to help revitalize neighborhoods and promote affordable housing near their campuses. ECSU was one of three universities awarded $800,000 (2011).

THE ALMA MATER

To thee Dear Alma Mater,
A tribute song we sing,
Of thy true worth to all of us
O may we honor bring.

Hail to thy lovely halls, ECSU
We'll hear when duty calls, ECSU
Faithful and ever true, we'll be to you.
For in our hearts, we'll still love thee ECSU.
So now we'll join together
For thee O State to work
Let none of us be faint at heart
Nor any duty shirk.
The Willie and Jacqueline Gilchrist Education and Psychology Complex, an $18.7 million dollar facility opened with ribbon cutting ceremony in January, 2012. It contains 53 faculty offices, including the Dean's (School of Education and Psychology) suite, education and psychology chairs and endowed chair offices, two faculty lounges, three conference rooms, 15 classrooms, one computer laboratory, 1 curriculum laboratory, 14 classrooms and three conference rooms. Green features include occupancy controlled lighting. Four LCD monitors were placed in the building to display general student information and emergency messages. All exterior doors and office suite entrance doors operate by a key card system. Two planned gifts to the Willie and Jacqueline Gilchrist Scholarship Fund were announced at the brief ceremony—the couple's two sons, daughters-in-law, and their daughter and son-in-law, who gave a $75,000 donation. Next, was a $30,000 donation from Mr. and Mrs. Leonard (Ann) Carmichael, both alumni of ECSU.
Viking Tower The new residence hall named Viking Tower held its ribbon cutting ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 8, 2012. The $12.6 million three-story, 210-bed residence hall houses students in suites that include private bedrooms, some double-occupancy rooms, an exercise room, laundry rooms on every floor and computer labs. Viking Tower is located on the northeast quadrant of the ECSU campus behind Bias Hall. It sits in the heart of campus near The Promenade, where many student activities are held, and a short distance from Johnson, Lane and Moore halls, where numerous classes are taught. ECSU now houses 1,542 students in 10 university residence halls.

Greetings Alumni, Friends, Faculty, Staff, Students, and Families,

On behalf of the 2012 – 2013 S.A.L.U.T.E. Administration of Student Government Association we would like to welcome you to Elizabeth City State University home of the mighty Vikings. We are elated that you were able to join us as we celebrate another exciting Viking Homecoming. While you are here with us we hope that you have a wonderful time and enjoy all the events that we have to offer on this illustrious campus. We would like to take this time to thank you for your continuous support to this university as it has changed throughout the years. As student leaders we strive not only to be the voice of the student body but to also to uphold the values that this distinguished university represents.

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.

Join the 350 + students, staff, faculty and alumni who have already made their mark on the “Viking Promenade” (located between the Ridley New Student Center and University Suites) by becoming a part of the Viking Walk of Fame.

The Viking Walk of Fame is a fundraiser sponsored by the Division of Student Affairs. We encourage you to become a part of history by purchasing your own engraved Viking Brick (paver) on the Viking Walk of Fame that will define your connection to ECSU in a special way. You can imprint your brick with your name, class year, a special group you are a part of, a memory dedication of someone special or a message stating your affiliation.

Funds generated from the Viking Walk of Fame brick sale will be used to enhance and support emerging initiatives and priorities in the Division of Student Affairs, which will assist students in their development as student leaders during their years at ECSU and in their future careers.

Order form is available online at www.applyweb.com/public/contribute?ecsuctst
