The act of naming a facility or unit is to be taken discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and with concern for how that action will be viewed in the retrospect of decades. In recommending the conferral of a naming honor on individuals or organizations, the Chancellor’s Advisory Committee on Naming Facilities and Units shall evaluate the whole legacy of those individuals or organization on the basis of standards relevant to the honoree’s own time. In the case of historical persons or entities, it is constructive also to view the proposed naming by contemporary standards to ensure that the naming is appropriate.

1. It is the policy of the University that facilities or units of the University may be named for individuals or organizations in consideration of financial contributions made to the University

2. Generally, facilities shall not be named for members of the administration, faculty, staff, Board of Trustees, Foundation Board, Board of Governors, or any elected official or state employee concerned with the function or control of the University, so long as the relationships exists.    a. In the instance a corporate or organizational naming of facilities, additional due diligence should be taken to avoid any appearance of commercial influence such as quid pro quo (other than a gift associated with the naming) or conflict of interest. As with individuals honored with facility naming at the University, corporations or organizations proposed for facility naming should have a positive image and demonstrated integrity.

   b. Signage reflecting a corporate or organizational naming of a facility must conform to all University signage guidelines and may not include the organization logo or other components of branding.

3. A gift for naming a facility ordinarily should equal:

   a. At least one-third of the total project cost for constructing or acquiring the new facility, or

   b. At least one-third of the total project cost for renovating and existing facility; or

   c. At least one-third of the portion of the total project cost that is to be raised from the private sector if State or other funds are funding a portion of the project costs for a new or renovated existing facility; or

   d. At least one-third of the replacement cost of an existing facility not undergoing renovation. Typically, but not always, three-fourths of a gift to name an existing facility not undergoing renovation will be in the form of endowment, preferably unrestricted endowment to the University unit or as designated for other use by the Chancellor.

4. When a facility to be named is closely related to a school or department, representative members of its faculty, staff, and students shall be consulted before the Committee, Chancellor, or Board of Trustees act on the naming proposal.

5. Financial contributions resulting in the naming of a facility shall be made to The Elizabeth City State University Foundation. These contributions -excluding expendable contributions -shall be managed and invested by The Elizabeth City State University Foundation.    a. Pledges to be paid over a period of time, typically up to five years, are acceptable for current naming of facilities and units when, at least 50 percent of the pledged amount has been received and a signed pledge payment agreement for the remainder has also been received.
      i. If the pledged donation is to name new construction, renovation, or other projects with cash-flow consideration, the timing of the pledge payment should be such that sufficient current dollars are available to cover project costs.

   b. Irrevocable planned gifts may generate current naming of facilities and units if current cash flow considerations are not an issue for the requesting facility or unit. Irrevocable planned gifts will be credited at their present value, and particular emphasis will be given to the predictability of the long-term value of the irrevocable deferred gift.

   c. Combinations of revocable planned gifts and cash may occasionally generate current naming opportunities under the right circumstances. Each combination request must be explained fully to the Committee and a case made for the appropriateness of the naming given the specifics of a particular gift. Particular emphasis will be given to the cash flow requirements of the requesting facility or unit, the predictability of the long-term value of the revocable deferred gift component, and the predictability of its receipt.

E. Duration and Modification of Naming

1. The duration of a benefactor’s or honoree’s name on any facility or unit ordinarily continues for as long as the facility or unit is used in the same manner or for the same purpose for which the naming occurred. Any naming made pursuant to this policy shall remain in effect until such time as the University determines the facility has exceeded its useful life or the facility’s continued use has become impossible or impractical. Upon demolition, replacement, substantial renovation, redesignation of purpose, or similar modification of a named facility or unit, the University may deem that the naming period has concluded.

   a. The appropriate University representative will make all reasonable efforts to inform in advance the original benefactors or honorees or their surviving family members when the naming period is deemed to have concluded.
b. The University may, but is not required to, provide for the appropriate perpetuation of the previous name. Perpetuation of the original name in an equivalent naming is not required. Appropriate perpetuation of previous names may include, for instance, a plaque in or adjacent to new and renovated facilities.

2. Renaming-When the benefactor’s or honoree’s naming period has concluded, the facility or unit may be renamed, with the original name removed, in recognition of new gifts, subject to any specific terms and conditions set forth in the original naming agreement and subject to the guidelines in section E-1 (above).

3. Joint or Hyphenated Naming-Additional names may be added to a facility or unit in recognition of an additional gift even if the prior benefactor’s or honoree’s naming period has not concluded, subject to any specific terms and conditions set forth in the original naming agreement. Hyphenation of names is one method for jointly naming a facility or unit.

4. Term Naming-In appropriate instances, most often involving a corporate benefactor, a naming may be granted for a pre-determined fixed term, usually 3-10 years. At the end of the term, the name of the facility or unit shall expire but may be renewed with the same or a new name. The gift agreement should clearly specify the period of time for which the facility or unit will be named.

5. Benefactor or Honoree Name Changes-If a benefactor or honoree requests a change to the name of a facility or unit (e.g., due to divorce or corporate merger), the University will consider the request. If approved, all replacement signage and other related costs shall be at the donor’s or honoree’s expense.

6. Revocation of naming approval or conferral-In certain circumstances, the University reserves the right, on reasonable grounds, to revoke and terminate its obligations regarding a naming with no financial responsibility and for returning any received contributions to the benefactor. These actions, and the circumstances that prompt them, may apply to an approved naming that has not yet been acted upon or to a conferred naming.

   a. In situations where University facilities, or any part thereof, have been dedicated to or named for any person, family, or organization, the University reserves the right to withdraw the designation or name if, in the sole opinion of the University, the person, family, or organization has come into disrepute in the University or in the general community so as to reflect negatively or adversely upon the University.

   b. If the benefactor fails to maintain payments on a pledge upon which the name was bestowed, the naming may be revoked.
