Student Organization of the Year - Nominate

This award is given annually to recognize a student organization that has been a leader among recognized student organizations at ECSU. This award is presented to the organization that has been responsible for major contributions in the areas of service, programming, and leadership while demonstrating true excellence among its peers.

- Be a recognized and currently registered student organization in good standing with the Department of Student Engagement and Leadership.
- Organization had a significant positive influence on ECSU campus community.
- Must have provided programs that promoted interaction among the members and the University community.
- Demonstrated commitment to excellence in the fulfillment of its purpose and goals, and the ECSU community.

Student Organization Program of the Year - Nominate

This award is given annually to the student organization that sponsored an event that was creative, well publicized, and had an impact on ECSU’s campus. This program enhanced the University community by utilizing an innovative approach of involving the student body and/or greater campus community. To qualify for this award, the organization must have hosted an official program approved by the Department of Student Engagement and Leadership. The organization must be currently registered and active.

Student Organization Officer of the Year - Nominate

Student Organizations depend on their officers to help define the missions of their groups, build plans to achieve their goals, and provide encouragement and motivation to members while also managing expectations and providing important oversight. From presidents and treasurers, to vice-presidents and membership chairs, all officers can have an incredible impact on their organization. To be eligible for this award the following criteria must be met:

- An officer of a student organization in the past academic year, with the exception of the president.
Inter-fraternity Council (IFC) Organization of the Year - Nominate

Recognizes a Greek lettered organization within the Inter-fraternity Council (IFC) who has made outstanding contributions to the campus and greater community during the current academic year. This organization, through their commitment and service to the community, has sponsored and/or participated in numerous philanthropic and community service projects that enhanced ECSU and the community. To qualify for this award, the organization must be in good standing with the university and must have held at least two official programs on campus during the current academic year. Organizations must have also conducted service in the community outside the ECSU campus.

National Pan-Hellenic Council Organization of the Year - Nominate

Recognizes a Greek lettered organization within the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) who has made outstanding contributions to the campus and greater community during the current academic year. This organization, through their commitment and service to the community, has sponsored and/or participated in numerous philanthropic and community service projects that enhanced ECSU and the community. To qualify for this award, the organization must be in good standing with the university and must have held at least two official programs on campus during the current academic year. Organizations must have also conducted service in the community outside the ECSU campus.