MESSAGE FROM THE UNIVERSITY POLICE CHIEF

Your safety and security is our number one priority. COVID-19 and the Delta Variant pandemic requires everyone to follow health safety guidelines to prevent and eliminate the spread. Therefore, we encourage and require all to wear their mask, wash hands regularly and practice social distancing. ECSU has a full-service police department comprised of sworn police officers, emergency management unit, property security officers, emergency communications personnel and administrative employees. We are committed to providing the Elizabeth City community with a safe and secure environment. Thank you for your interest in the safety of our University. In reviewing our Annual Security and Fire Safety Report you will see valuable information about our commitment, policies and programs relating to campus safety.

Please understand that the safety and security of the University are the combined responsibility of the entire community. Our partnerships and relationships with law enforcement agencies in our region as well as other UNC System police departments are strong. Although crime incidents at ECSU is low, we must remain vigilant concerning campus safety and security. Significant improvements are continue to be made in campus safety, which is a directly related to the support and emphasis by our Chancellor and Cabinet. The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report contain crime data, policies and procedures, as well as crime prevention programs.

We, the men and women of the University Police Department are committed to providing professional and quality services to our community. We adhere to our core values of Responsibility, Integrity, Professionalism, Respect and Fairness. Your safety and security is our number one priority!

MESSAGE FROM THE CLERY COMPLIANCE OFFICER

Every member of our campus community has an obligation to campus safety. Through engagement, participation, and awareness our campus community strives towards ensuring all persons have a safe environment in which to learn and grow. The University Police Department works to create a strong partnership with the campus community to create an inviting and safe campus. The Clery Act requires institutions of higher education to publish information about their campus security policies and to give timely warning of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of students or employees. It also requires the institution to collect crime data, provide a report of the data to the campus community and to submit the statistics to the Department of Education.

Compliance with the Clery Act is not simply a matter of entering statistics into a website or publishing a brochure once a year. Compliance is achieved through collaboration – this coordination ensures the institution develops the appropriate policies, gathers accurate information from all the required sources and translates it into the appropriate categories with language that is easily understood by the general public. Using a system-wide approach ensures the institution is disseminating the right information, at the right time, and maintaining the appropriate records.

The Clery Act provides students and families with the information that may prove helpful in making informed decisions about the safety on specific campuses. Feel free to contact me at (252) 335-3691 or email me at wmorrisjr@ecsu.edu for more information about the Clery Act and/or the Violence Against Women Act.

Sincerely,
Wayne Morris Jr.
Police Lieutenant/Clery Compliance Officer/Accreditation
MESSAGE FROM TITLE IX COORDINATOR

At ECSU, we are fully committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all students, faculty, staff and visitors free from sexual discrimination and harassment, which includes acts of sexual violence. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal mandate that protects individuals from discrimination based upon sex in federally funded education programs and activities. The university prohibits its students, faculty and staff from engaging in any form of gender-based discrimination and harassment, sexual violence, dating violence, and retaliation and expects these individuals to refrain from committing these acts of sexual misconduct as these offenses jeopardize the health and welfare of our students, employees and visitors. In compliance with federal and state law and university policy, ECSU maintains processes to provide redress and remediation to individuals or groups who believe they have been the victim of sexual misconduct offenses. We will ensure that the investigation and sanctions process is prompt, fair and equitable for both the complainant and the respondent.

We will continue to keep the university community informed and knowledgeable about sexual discrimination through prevention and awareness programs, resources and training for students, faculty and staff. The Office of Title IX, along with campus partners are constantly engaging and educating members of the campus community about prevention techniques and bystander intervention strategies. Please review the information in this report to stay abreast of ECSU’s programs, policies and grievance processes for addressing acts of sexual violence at ECSU.

Thank you for taking the time to read this very important report about the safety and security of our campus community.

Sincerely,
Lucretia R. Banks
Title IX Coordinator

TITLE IX PROGRAM

The Division of Student Affairs is responsible for overseeing and administering ECSU’s Title IX Program. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that protects students, employees, and third parties (such as vendors, parents, etc.) from sex discrimination.

Complainants are encouraged to report incidents of sexual harassment in a timely manner. The University is committed to implementing prompt and appropriate remedies to prevent sex discrimination and/or harassment along with its effects. An impartial investigation will be conducted and ECSU strives to complete this investigation within a timely manner from receipt of the written complaint. At the conclusion of the investigation, ECSU will notify the complainant and respondent in writing of the findings. The complainant and the respondent are both entitled to have an advisor present during the disciplinary proceeding and the complainant may withdraw a complaint at any time in writing to Lucretia Banks, the Title IX Coordinator. Upon a finding of Title IX violation against the respondent, the accused student may be expelled or suspended from the University.
Upon a finding of a Title IX violation by an employee, that employee may be subject to termination, suspension, or other disciplinary action. Upon a finding of a Title IX violation by a third party, the university may immediately terminate any contractual relationship, access to the campus, and relationship with the third party. All of these actions for students, third parties, and employees are in addition to notifying university police for a criminal investigation if there is a violation of North Carolina law.

To the extent possible, the University will keep the complaint and investigation private. Retaliation, or engaging in an adverse action against a person who has filed a Title IX complaint, is strictly prohibited. Any individual within the university community who engages in retaliation shall be subject to disciplinary action. Upon request, Elizabeth City State University will make any reasonable change to a party's academic, living, transportation, and/or working situation. If desired, University Police will assist the victim in contacting local law enforcement authorities. Students who have been subject to sexual assault, sexual violence or sexual harassment may request to withdraw for a semester from individual courses.

Any victim of a sexual assault should report these incidents to University Police immediately at (252) 335-3266. Victims of sexual discrimination or sexual assault may also contact Lucretia Banks, Title IX Coordinator by phone at (252) 335-3907 or by email at titleixcoordinator@ecsu.edu. Ms. Banks' office is located in C. W. Griffin Hall Room 130.

You may also contact the Office of Civil Rights by calling 1 (800) 421-3481 or by visiting the OCR website which provides instructions for how to file a complaint at https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/known.html?src=ft.html. The Albemarle Hopeline telephone service is available 24 hours a day. The Title IX webpage can be found at https://www.ecsu.edu/current-students/student-affairs/titleix/titleix.html.

REPORTING CRIMES AND OTHER EMERGENCIES

The University has a numerous of ways for campus community members and visitors to report crimes, serious incidents, and other emergencies to the appropriate ECSU officials. Regardless of how and where you decide to report these incidents, it is critical for the safety of the entire ECSU community that you immediately report all incidents to the University Police at (252) 335-3266 to ensure an effective investigation and appropriate follow-up actions, including issuing a crime alert or emergency notification.

Voluntary, Confidential Reporting

If crimes are never reported, little can be done to help other members of the community from being victims. We encourage University community members to report crimes promptly to University Police and to participate in and support crime prevention efforts. The University community will be much safer when all community members participate in safety and security initiatives.

The University does not have procedures for voluntary, confidential reporting.

Pastoral and Professional Counselors

The University does not have procedures that encourage pastoral and professional counselors, at their discretion, to inform those they counsel to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential manner for the purposes of collecting crime statistics. As previously disclosed, the University does not have procedures for voluntary, confidential reporting.

Reporting to University Police

We encourage all members of the University community to report all crimes and other emergencies to University Police in a timely manner. For emergencies, you may contact the University Police by dialing 911 that connects the caller to the Pasquotank/Camden Communications Center. They will dispatch the appropriate personnel to your location. University Police are available 24 hours a day year round. For non-emergencies, members of the campus community should dial (252) 335-3266 for assistance. University Police is located at the Thomas-Jenkins Building on Muldrow Way. Though there are many resources available, University Police should be notified of any crime, whether or not an investigation continues, to assure the University can address any and all security concerns and inform the community if there is a significant threat to the University community.
Emergency Phones

The University installed 30 emergency call boxes (blue light phones) strategically placed in public areas outside of buildings including residence hall complexes, administration buildings, and also numerous other locations throughout campus for use when immediate police assistance is needed. By pressing the red button on the phone, users can communicate directly with our Emergency Dispatch Center. The location of the emergency call box is digitally displayed to the Emergency Communications Officer to ensure a prompt and accurate response by University Police Officers and Security Personnel.

Reporting to Other Campus Security Authorities

While the University prefers that community members promptly report all crimes and other emergencies directly to the University Police at 911 or (252) 335-3266, we also recognize that some may prefer to report to other individuals or University offices. The Clery Act recognizes certain University officials and offices as “Campus Security Authorities (CSA).”

The Act defines these individuals as an “official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings. An official is defined as any person who has the authority and the duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution.”

ABOUT UNIVERSITY POLICE

Role, authority, and training

University Police protects and serves the ECSU community 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The Department is responsible for a number of campus safety and security programs including community safety and security education, physical security, including security technology, behavioral threat assessment, and special event management.

The Department is comprised of:

- 15 Sworn Police Officers
- 6 Security Officers
- 7 Police Dispatchers
- 1 Police Service Assistants
- 1 Emergency Management Coordinator

University Police officers are commissioned under North Carolina law and have the same authority as municipal police officers in North Carolina, being authorized to carry firearms and empowered to make arrests. All criminal incidents on Elizabeth City State University Campus are investigated by the University Police and/or in conjunction with the Elizabeth City Police Department or Pasquotank County Sheriff’s Office. We encourage all ECSU community members to immediately report all crimes that occur on campus or University property to the University Police at (252) 335-3266 or immediately by dialing 911.

All sworn police officers complete a Basic Law Enforcement Training course and re-certify annually as required by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Training and Standards Division for all municipal police officers in North Carolina. Officers all undergo more than 24 hours per year of in-service training which consist of basic criminal investigation, domestic violence, ethics, law enforcement intelligence, legal update, sexual assault response, interview and interrogation, crime prevention, fingerprint and crime scene investigation, evidence collection, hazardous material, emergency first aid, Crisis Intervention Training, Use of Force and Clery Act, CPR/AED, firearms, subject control arrest techniques and juvenile minority sensitivity training.

Campus Security Officers complete a property security officer’s course annually and train along with campus police officers in all topical areas listed above except firearms recertification.

University Police Mission Statement

“We, the members of Elizabeth City State University Police Department, are committed to providing the highest level of law enforcement and security service. We will improve the safety and quality of life at the University by building partnerships that reduce crime, being responsive to the needs of others, maintaining order by creating a safe environment while upholding the laws of North Carolina and the United States Constitution. We adhere to the principles of Responsibility, Integrity, Professionalism, Respect and Fairness.”

Safety, Our Number One Priority

The University takes great pride in the community and offers students, facility and staff many advantages. This community is a great place to live, learn, work and study; however, this does not mean that the campus community is immune from all of the other unfortunate circumstances that arise in other communities. With that in mind, ECSU has taken progressive measures to create and maintain a reasonably safe environment on campus.

Though the University is progressive with its policies, programs, and education, it is up to each one of us to live with a sense of awareness and use reasonable judgment when living, working or visiting on campus.
Working Relationship with Local, State, and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies

The University Police maintains a cooperative relationship with the State Bureau of Investigations, North Carolina Highway Patrol, Elizabeth City Police Department, Pasquotank County Sheriff’s Department and other surrounding law enforcement agencies. This includes joint training programs, Alcohol Law Enforcement, special events coordination, and the investigation of serious crimes. The University has Mutual Aid Agreements with local law enforcement agencies that authorize police officers and supervisors of the participating agencies to request mutual aid for incidents based upon a reasonable belief that such aid will enhance public and/or officer safety and efficiency. The agencies participating in the Agreement include Elizabeth City Police Department, Pasquotank County Sheriff’s Department and all Campus Police Departments from the University of North Carolina constituent institutions.

TIMELY WARNING REPORTS – ECSU ALERT

In an effort to provide timely notice to the campus community in the event of a Clery Act crime that may pose a serious or ongoing threat to members of the community, the University Police issues an “ECSU Alert.” The University Police will generally issue ECSU Alerts for the following crimes: arson; aggravated assault; criminal homicide; robbery; burglary; sexual assaults; and hate crimes.

Police will post these warnings through a variety of ways, including but not limited to posters, e-mails, and social media. The University also has the ability to send text message alerts to individuals who register their cell phone numbers into Banner. The text messaging can be a very effective way to send important information to the campus community. All campus members should register their mobile phone number in the Banner at https://ssbprod-ecsu.uncecs.edu/pls/ECSUPROD/twbkwbis.P_WWWLogin. To register for mobile phone emergency notifications, enter your User ID and PIN into the banner webpage. Click on the “Personal Information” tab and then click on the “Update Addresses and Phones” link. Under the “Phones” heading, click on the “Primary” link to register your mobile phone number. Scroll to the bottom of the webpage and enter your information under the “Phone Type” heading.

By registering your mobile phone number, you will receive an ECSU ALERT text message when you need to be notified of a campus emergency or serious incident. Community members are encouraged to check the ECSU homepage and the ECSU Alert page for updates regarding serious events that affect campus.

The purpose of an ECSU Alert is to notify the campus community of a serious incident and to provide information that may enable community members to protect themselves from similar incidents. The University will issue ECSU Alerts whenever the following criteria are met: 1) a crime is committed; 2) the perpetrator has not been apprehended; and 3) there is a substantial risk to the physical safety of other members of the campus community because of this crime. Such crimes include, but are not limited to: 1) Clery Act crimes that are reported to any campus security authority or the local police; or the University determines that the incident represents an on-going threat to the campus community.

Additionally, the University Police may, in some circumstances, issue ECSU Alerts when there is a pattern of crimes against persons or property. At ECSU, the Chief of University Police will determine, in consultation with other University offices, if an ECSU Alert is required. However, in emergency situations, any police supervisor may authorize an ECSU Alert. For incidents involving off-campus crimes, the University may issue an ECSU Alert if the crime occurred in a location used and frequented by the University population.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Emergency Management at Elizabeth City State University

The Emergency Management Coordinator is responsible for the Emergency Operations Plan (EOP). This plan is designed to be an all-hazards disaster response and emergency management plan that includes planning, mitigation, response, and recovery actions.

Our priorities are:
• Life safety, infrastructure integrity, and environmental protection during an emergency
• Coordination with university departments to write, maintain, test, and exercise the EOP
• Cooperation, Integration, and Mutual Aid with local, state and federal planning, response, and public safety agencies and their EOPs.

Information regarding ECSU’s emergency response procedures is located at http://www.ecsu.edu/documents/legal-affairs/policymanual.pdf.

Drills, Exercises and Training

Annually, ECSU conducts an emergency management exercise to test emergency procedures. The scenarios for these exercises change from year-to-year, and include several University departments.

To ensure the ECSU’s emergency operation plans remain current and actionable, the University will conduct an emergency management exercise, once a year. These exercises may include tabletop drills, emergency operations center exercises, or full-scale emergency response exercises. The University conducts after-action reviews of all emergency management exercises.

In conjunction with at least one emergency management exercise each year, ECSU will notify the community of the exercise and remind the community of the information included in the University’s publicly available information regarding emergency response procedures. Dates and other information regarding evacuation procedure can be found at https://ssbprod-ecsu.uncecs.edu/pls/ECSUPROD/twbkwbis.P_WWWLogin.
Emergency Notification

ECSU is committed to ensuring that the campus community receives timely, accurate, and useful information in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus or in the local area that poses an immediate threat to the health and safety of campus community members. ECSU uses the emergency notification system (Blackboard Connect) to send mass notifications via email, text message, and streaming emergency notifications for the ECSU webpage. The Blackboard Connect System is an emergency notification service available to students, staff, and anyone in the University community who wants to subscribe. Blackboard Connect can be used to send emergency messages within minutes of the occurrence of an incident. Alerts sent by Blackboard Connect are simulcast to the University community via our alert webpage at http://www.ecsu.edu/ecsualert/index.html, ECSU’s Facebook page, Twitter, or at the subscriber’s choice their e-mail account.

ECSU performs a University-wide monthly test of the system as directed by policy on the third Wednesday of each month at 3:00 p.m. The following procedures outline the process the University uses when issuing emergency notifications.

Confirming the Existence of a Significant Emergency or Dangerous Situation and Initiating the Emergency Notification System

University Police and/or other campus first responders may become aware of a critical incident or other emergency situation that potentially affects the health and/or safety of the campus community. Generally, campus first responders become aware of these situations when they are reported to the University Police Communications Center or upon discovery during patrol or other assignments.

Once first responders confirm that there is, in fact, an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the campus community, first responders will notify supervisors at University Police to issue an emergency notification.

ECSU’s authorized representatives will immediately initiate all or some portions of the University’s emergency notification system if, in the professional judgment of first responders, issuing a notification potentially compromises efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency, ECSU may elect to delay issuing an emergency notification. As soon as the condition that may compromise efforts is no longer present, the University will issue the emergency notification to the campus community.

Determining the Appropriate Segment or Segments of the Campus Community to Receive an Emergency Notification

ECSU and/or local first responders on the scene of a critical incident or dangerous situation will assist those preparing the emergency notification with determining what segment or segments of the University community should receive the notification. Generally, campus community members in the immediate area of the dangerous situation (i.e., the building, adjacent buildings, or surrounding area) will receive the emergency notification first. The University may issue subsequent notifications to a wider group of community members. In addition to the emergency notification that may be issued via the ECSU’s Blackboard Connect notification system, the University will also post applicable messages about the dangerous condition on the University webpage on the ECSU Alert webpage to ensure the rest of the campus is aware of the situation and the steps they should take to maintain personal and campus safety. If the emergency affects a significant portion of the entire campus, University officials will distribute the notification to the entire campus community.

Determining the Contents of the Emergency Notification

University Police, in concert with University Relations & Marketing and local first responders, is responsible for issuing the emergency notification and will determine the contents of the notification. The University has developed a wide range of template messages addressing several different emergency situations. The individual authorizing the alert will select the template message most appropriate to the on-going situation and modify it to address the specifics of the present incident. In those cases where there are no pre-determined template messages in the system, the individual authorizing the alert will develop the most succinct message to convey the appropriate information to the community. The goal is to ensure individuals are aware of the situation and that they know the steps to take to safeguard their personal and community safety.

Procedures Used to Notify the Campus Community

In the event of a situation that poses an immediate threat to members of the campus community, the University has various methods in place for communicating information quickly. Some or all of these methods of communication may be activated in the event of an emergency to all or a segment of campus community. These methods of communication include the ECSU Alert e-mail system, text message, ECSU Alert webpage messages and the campus siren. The University will post important updates during critical incidents on the ECSU homepage. If the situation warrants, the University will establish a telephone call-in center to communicate with the University community during an emergency situation.

Enrolling in the University’s Emergency Notification System

All campus members should register their mobile phone number using their personal log-in information on the Banner webpage at https://ssbprod-ecsu.uncccs.edu/pls/ECSUPROD/twbkwbis.P_WWWLogin. Access to individual classrooms and laboratories are limited to those enrolled in the courses meeting there. Likewise, access to most programs is limited to those that enrolled in the program or otherwise authorized to access.

Many cultural and athletic events held in University facilities are open to the public. Other facilities such as the bookstore and library are likewise open to the public. Only those who have demonstrated a need are issued keys to a building.

Special Considerations for Residence Hall Access

On campus, most residence halls operate under a computerized Access Control and Security Monitoring System. Identification cards are coded so that only students who are residents in a particular hall are authorized electronic access entry to that hall; the system denies entry to all unauthorized persons. Resident Assistants are responsible for checking and securing doors, when needed. Most residence hall and apartment exterior doors are equipped with locks and with crash bars to ensure a quick emergency exit. Remember to lock your doors and windows.

Only residents and their invited guests are permitted in the living areas of the residence halls. It is the resident's responsibility to ensure that his/her guest is aware of the University and residence hall policies. Guests are not provided with room keys or door access cards. A resident of the building must escort guests of the opposite sex at all times.

All exterior doors are locked 24 hours a day. It is the responsibility of residents and staff members to challenge or report individuals who cannot be identified as residents or the guests of residents. When University Police receive a report of an unescorted person in a residence hall, a police officer is dispatched to identify that person. Most of these officers spend much of their time patrolling in and around the residence hall complexes. Residential Security Officers are assigned to patrol the residence hall areas from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 a.m.

Special Considerations for Residence Hall Access

During low-occupancy periods such as holidays and scheduled breaks, students are consolidated into designated buildings and gain access via the University’s electronic access control system. During the summer when groups who are not regularly associated with the University are using the University residence halls, exterior doors are locked 24 hours a day. Each guest is issued an identification card that allows him or her to gain access to their assigned building via the electronic access control system. Residence Halls are staffed 24 hours per day. University Police personnel also conduct regular checks of residence hall areas.

Security Considerations in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

Security Considerations in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities Elizabeth City State University is committed to campus safety and security. At ECSU, locks, landscaping and outdoor lighting are designed for safety and security. Sidewalks are designed to provide well-traveled, lighted routes from parking areas to buildings and from building to building. Sidewalks and building entrances are illuminated to provide well-traveled, lighted routes from parking areas to buildings and from building to building. Contractors are required to attain a visitor pass, prior to performing any maintenance work to facilities.

We encourage community members to promptly report any security concern, including concerns about locking mechanism, lighting, or landscaping to University Police.

ECSU’S RESPONSE TO SEXUAL AND GENDER VIOLENCE

Sexual & Gender Violence Annual Security Report Policy

Introduction

Elizabeth City State University is committed to providing a safe learning and working environment, and in compliance with federal law has adopted policies and procedures to prevent and respond to incidents of sexual violence including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. These guidelines apply to all students, faculty, staff, contractors and visitors.

Reporting an Incident

If a student, employee or visitor has been the victim of an incident of sexual violence they should immediately report it to the Elizabeth City State University Police Department, located in the Thomas-Jenkins Building, at (252) 335-3266. In the case of an emergency or ongoing threat if possible get to a safe location and please report the incident by calling 911. Local police may be contacted via 911 and are located at 302 E Colonial Avenue, Elizabeth City, NC 27909.

Students and employees may also report to Lucretia Banks, the Title IX Coordinator, located in C.W. Griffin Hall Office 130, at (252) 335-3907. Students may also report to Student Affairs, located in C.W. Griffin Hall, at (252) 335-3276. Elizabeth City State University officials will assist any victim in notifying law enforcement, including local police, if they elect to do so. Victims are also entitled not to report to law enforcement. Any student or employee, who reports an incident of sexual violence, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, shall receive a written explanation of their rights and options. A sexual assault is any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent, as well as incest or statutory rape.

Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim. Dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the victim. Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress.

Written Notice of Rights & Options

Any student or employee who reports an incident of sexual or gender violence, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, shall receive a written explanation of their rights and options. This written explanation identifies existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, and other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community; and describes options for available assistance in; and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures.

Procedures Victims Should Follow/Preservation of Evidence

If an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking occurs it is important to preserve evidence to aid in the possibility of a successful criminal prosecution. The victim of a sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical exam. Any clothing removed should be placed in a paper bag. Evidence of violence, such as bruising or other visible injuries, following an incident of domestic or dating violence should be documented including through the preservation of photographic evidence. Evidence of stalking including any communication, such as written notes, voice mail or other electronic communications should be saved and not altered in any way.

On & Off Campus Resources

Both Elizabeth City State University and Elizabeth City also offer other important resources to the victims of sexual violence including medical treatment, counseling and advocacy they may wish to utilize. The PACE Center, located in 202A Ridley Student Center, can be reached at (252) 335-8535 and is available to assist any student or employee free of charge and will help individuals consider their options and navigate through any resources or recourse they elect to pursue. Accommodations

Whether or not a student or employee reports to law enforcement and or pursues any formal action, if they report an incident of sexual violence, Elizabeth City State University is committed to providing as safe a learning and/or working environment as possible. Upon request, Elizabeth City State University will make any reasonable available change to a party’s academic, living, transportation, and or working situation. Students and Employees may contact The Office of Title IX at (252) 335-3907/C. W. Griffin Hall Room 130.

If a victim reports to law enforcement, law enforcement may assist the victim in obtaining an Ex-Parte (no-contact order). Elizabeth City State University is committed to ensuring that any such order is fully upheld on all institutionally owned and controlled property. Elizabeth City State University is also committed to protecting victims from any further harm, and the University may issue a separate campus-wide no-contact order pending the outcome of any conduct proceeding.

Victim Confidentiality

Elizabeth City State University recognizes the sensitive nature of sexual violence and is committed to protecting the privacy of any individual who reports an incident of sexual violence. Different officials on campus are, however, able to offer varying levels of privacy protection to victims. Reports made to law enforcement, including if criminal prosecution is pursued, may be made public, and while every effort will be made not to identify the victim in incidents reports and media (under North Carolina law), reports made to law enforcement will lead to the name of the victim being shared with the accused.

Reports made to Elizabeth City State University officials will be kept as private as possible, with identifying information about the victim only shared with University officials on a need-to-know basis.

Victims may report confidentially to a counselor or an adviser in the Student Counseling Services (252) 335-3267 or Student Health Services (252) 335-3267. Reports made to advocates and counselors in these locations will not be shared with any third party.

Under North Carolina Law, individuals under the age of 18 are classified as minors, and reports related to these individuals must be shared with their legal guardians.
Education Programs

Elizabeth City State University is committed to increasing the awareness of and preventing sexual violence. All incoming students and new employees are provided with programming and strategies intended to prevent rape, acquaintance rape, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking before it occurs through the changing of social norms and other approaches; that includes a clear statement that Elizabeth City State University prohibits such acts, their definitions, the definition of consent, options for bystander intervention, information about risk reduction, and our policies and procedures for responding to these incidents. Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns are also offered throughout the year. These programs include:

- Freshmen Survival Skills at New Student Orientation
- Residence Hall workshops for on-campus students about sexual violence
- Seminars on Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act, and the Clery Act
- Bystander Intervention Training

Conduct Proceedings

Elizabeth City State University strictly prohibits all acts of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. In addition to facing criminal action, students, employees and other affiliates may also face disciplinary action by Elizabeth City State University. Individuals found responsible for having committed such a violation face permanent expulsion, termination of employment, suspension, probation, no-contact orders, restitution, and/or mandatory counseling. Incidents involving accused students will be handled by the Title IX Office and Office of the Dean of Students, and incidents involving accused employees/affiliates will be handled by the Title IX Office and Human Resources.

All conduct proceedings, whether the conduct is reported to have occurred on or off campus, shall provide a prompt, fair and impartial investigation and resolution by officials who have received annual training on the nature of the types of cases they are handling, on how to conduct an investigation, and conduct a hearing in a manner that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. Determination of responsibility shall be made by the Title IX Decision Maker Panel using the preponderance of the evidence standard (which means that it is more likely than not that the alleged misconduct occurred). In all proceedings, including any related meetings, both the accused and accuser are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present including the right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice. Both the accused and accuser shall simultaneously be informed in writing of the outcome made by Decision Maker Panel, of procedures for appealing the results of the outcome, of any change to the results that occurs prior to the time that they become final, and when such results become final. Disclosure of the outcome shall be made to both parties unconditionally, and each shall be free to share or not share the details with any third parties.

For additional information about conduct proceedings for both students and employees, please consult the full Sexual Misconduct Policy available at the Elizabeth City State University website (http://www.ecsu.edu).

Personal Safety

Despite law enforcement’s efforts, serious crimes do occur on campuses. It is important to report any suspicious incidents to police and always remain alert and vigilant.

One of the more serious crimes that too often are unreported is sexual assault. It is important to know what these crimes are because in many cases, victims do not realize that they have been victimized. Additionally, crimes of this nature are very difficult for victims to report for a number of very complex reasons. We provide the following information to help those who may have been victims of sexual assault or who have a friend who has been sexually assaulted.

There are many guidelines to help you be more alert and aware of the situation to prevent such serious crimes. Such as:

Know your surroundings
- Be alert
- Call for help
- Report any suspicious people and/or activity, immediately

Defining Rape and Sexual Assault in North Carolina

NC General Statute 14-27 defines rape and sexual assault as the following:

First Degree Rape - a person is guilty of rape in the first degree if the person engages in vaginal intercourse:

1. With a victim who is a child under the age of 13 years and the defendant is at least 12 years old and is at least 4 years older than the victim;

2. With another person by force and against the will of the other person and; employs a dangerous or deadly weapon or an article which the other person reasonably believes to be a dangerous or deadly weapon; or inflicts serious personal injury upon the victim or another, by one or more other persons.

Second Degree Rape - a person is guilty of rape in the second degree if the person engages in vaginal intercourse with another person:

1. By force and against the will of the other person; or

2. Who is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless, and the person performing the act knows or should reasonably know the other person is mentally, or physically helpless.
First Degree Sexual Assault - a person is guilty of a sexual offense in the first degree if the person engages in a sexual act:

1. With a victim who is a child under the age of 13 years and the defendant is at least 12 years old and is at least 4 years older than the victim.

2. With another person by force and against the will of the other person, and: (a) employs a dangerous or deadly weapon or an article which the other person reasonably believes to be a dangerous or deadly weapon, or (b) inflicts serious personal injury upon the victim or another, by one or more other persons, or (c) the person commits the offense aided and abetted by one or more other persons.

Second Degree Sexual Assault - a person is guilty of a sexual offense in the second degree if the person engages in a sexual act:

1. By force and against the will of the other person, or;

2. Who is mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless, and the person performing the act knows or should reasonably know the other person is mentally, or physically helpless.

Statutory Rape is a crime in which a minor is manipulated to engage in intercourse with someone older. Many victims do not understand this is a crime because statutory rape considers age difference and not the consent of the individuals.

NC General Statute 14-27 defines statutory rape as:

Statutory Rape - a person is guilty of statutory rape if the person engages in vaginal intercourse or a sexual act with another person:

1. Who is 13, 14, or 15 years old and the defendant is at least six years older than the person except when the defendant is lawfully married to the person.

2. Who is 13, 14, or 15 years old and the defendant is more than four but less than six years older than the person except when the defendant is lawfully married to the person.

While these definitions are clear, victims often have difficulty reporting a sexual assault for numerous reasons such as knowing the perpetrator, fear of retaliation, fear of parents knowing about the incident, or fear of getting in trouble with law enforcement. Despite these concerns, it is vital to report such incidents in order to get help.

The following information provides steps to follow should a sexual assault occur:

- Get to a safe place as soon as possible!

- Try to preserve all physical evidence – The victim should not bathe, shower, brush teeth, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing until he or she has a medical exam. Contact a close friend or relative, if available, who can provide support and accompany the victim to the medical exam and/or police department. Advocates from the Women’s Resource Center can be available to the victim to provide support.

- Get medical attention as soon as possible – An exam may reveal the presence of physical injury of which the victim is unaware. Following a sexual assault, antibiotics are typically given at the time of the exam to help prevent the victim from acquiring certain sexually transmitted diseases. Emergency contraceptive pills are offered to all victims at the time of the exam (if the victim presents within 120 hours) to help prevent pregnancy from occurring as a result of the rape. If the victim reports memory loss, loss of consciousness or other circumstances suspicious for a drug-facilitated assault, a urine test may be done if the victim presents within 96 hours. Some of the commonly used “date rape” drugs, however, are only detectable in the urine for 6-8 hours after ingestion.

- Contact the police – Sexual assault is a crime, it is vital to report it. It is important to remember reporting a crime is not the same as prosecuting the crime. The decision to prosecute may be made at another time. The final decision to prosecute is determined by the District Attorney.

- Consider talking to a counselor – Seeing a counselor may be important in helping the victim understand his/her feelings and begin the process of recovery.

Defining Consent in North Carolina

North Carolina has no definition of consent, therefore we use the Institutional Definition of Consent. Consent is an affirmative decision to engage in mutually acceptable sexual activity given by clear actions or words. It is an informed decision made freely and actively by all parties. Relying solely upon nonverbal communication can lead to miscommunication. Conduct will be considered “without consent,” if no clear consent, verbal or nonverbal, is given.

Under North Carolina law, sexual contact, including touching and intercourse, is prohibited when it is against the will of another person; i.e., without the presence of consent. Under Elizabeth City State University policy, consent is further defined as informed, freely and actively given, mutually understandable words or actions, which indicate a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. In the absence of mutually understandable words or actions it is the responsibility of the initiator, that is, the person who wants to engage in the specific sexual activity, to make sure that they have consent from their partner(s). Consent is mutually understandable when a sober, reasonable person would consider the words or actions of the parties to have manifested a mutually understandable agreement between them to do the same act, in the same way, at the same time, with each other. Consent must be knowing, active, voluntary, and present and ongoing. Under University policy, the following should also be considered in determining consent:

- Consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity or lack of active resistance alone.

- A current or previous dating or sexual relationship (or the existence of such a relationship with anyone else) may not, in itself, be taken to imply consent.
• Consent cannot be inferred by an individual's manner of dress, the giving or acceptance of gifts, the extension or acceptance of an invitation to go to a private room or location, or going on a date.

• Consent to one type of sexual act may not, in itself, be taken to imply consent to another type of sexual act.

• Consent may be withdrawn at any time.

Consent must be freely given and cannot be the result of force violence, physical restraint, or the presence of a weapon), threats indications of intent to harm, whether direct or indirect), intimidation extortion, menacing behavior, bullying), coercion (undue pressure) or fraud (misrepresentation or material omission about oneself or the situation in order to gain permission for sexual or intimate activity). Consent may never be given by any of the following: minors (under the age of 16 in North Carolina), mentally disabled persons, and/ or individuals who are incapacitated as a result of alcohol or other drugs, or who are unconscious, asleep or otherwise physically helpless. Incapacitation means being in a state where an individual lacks the capacity to appreciate the nature of giving consent to participate in sexual activity. Additionally, an individual may not engage in sexual activity with another whom one knows, or should reasonably have known, is incapacitated as a result of alcohol or other drugs. The perspective of a reasonable person will be the basis for determining whether an individual should have known about the impact of the use of alcohol or drugs on another’s ability to give consent. Being intoxicated or high does not diminish an individual’s responsibility to obtain consent and is never an excuse for sexual misconduct.

Our Commitment to Addressing Sexual Harassment, Including Sexual Assault

ECSU does not tolerate sexual misconduct or abuse, such as sexual assault, rape or any other forms of nonconsensual sexual activity. Sexual misconduct in any form violates the Student Code of Conduct, University policies (Policy on Sexual and Gender Based Harassment and Other Forms of Inter-Personal Violence https://www.ecsu.edu/administration/legal/policymanual/ofﬁcial-policy-manual/Section900/900-4-1-5.pdf. Section 900.4.1.5 and may violate Federal and State Laws. Violations of this policy are subject to disciplinary sanctions through the Office of Student Conduct and/ or those outlined in applicable University policies (please refer to the Policy on Sexual and Gender Based Harassment and Other Forms of Inter-Personal Violence which includes sexual assault, relationship and domestic violence, and stalking). Please visit https://www.ecsu.edu/current-students/student-affairs/titleix/titleix.html to review procedures, policies and protocols for reporting and addressing allegations of student sexual misconduct. The University provides the following rights to all sexual assault victims:

• Upon request, Elizabeth City State University will make any reasonable change to a victim’s academic, living, transportation, and/or working situation.

• The victim and the accused will receive a written explanation of their rights and options.

• Both the complainant and the respondent will have the same opportunities to have others present during the conduct proceedings.

• The University will ensure that the complainant and the respondent both receive a written notice of the final determination of the investigation.

• If desired, University Police will assist the victim in contacting local law enforcement authorities.

• On campus counseling services are available to students through the Counseling and Testing Center.

• Students who have been subject to sexual assault, sexual violence or sexual harassment may request to withdraw from a semester or individual courses.

University Procedures for Responding to Reports of Sexual Assault

If you or someone you know is the victim of a sexual assault, the victim has several rights, including:

• The right to report the incident to the University Police or local authorities. The University will assist victims in notifying either the University or local police. Filing a police report does not mean the victim must pursue criminal charges. The victim maintains his or her rights throughout the process.

• In addition to the campus services listed below, there are also several community service organizations that can provide counseling, mental health, and other related services to sexual assault victims. Student Affairs can assist with connecting victims to these services.

• You can also contact the Office of Civil Rights by calling 1 (800) 421-3481 or by visiting the OCR website which provides instructions for how to file a complaint at https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/howto.html.

If a victim of a sexual assault or relationship violence incident requests a change in her or his living arrangements or academic schedule, The Office of Title IX or the Office of the Dean of Students, and other offices at ECSU, will assist the individual with making these changes, as long as they are reasonably available.

University Disciplinary Procedures in Sexual Assault Incidents

If you have been sexually assaulted, you have options for addressing such conduct. You may wish to discuss the problem privately with a counselor or an advisor in Student Counseling Services, PACE Center, or Student Health Services. University Police is always available to assist a victim with getting the support she/he requests.

The University’s student conduct process is designed to afford a complainant (the person who is bringing a charge) and a respondent (the person who is answering a charge) a fair, prompt, and appropriate resolution process. The process is designed to help persons who need support as they address these incidents.

The Office of Title IX manages the resolution proceeding in which a student is the alleged perpetrator. The full text of the protocol for how the University responds to sexual assault complaints through the campus conduct process can be found at http://www.ecsu.edu/administration/human-resources/title-ix.html and the Policy on Sexual and Gender Based Harassment and Other Forms of Inter-Personal Violence found at https://www.ecsu.edu/administration/legal/policymanual/official-policy-manual/Section900/900-4-1-5.pdf. The Office of Title IX is responsible for managing proceedings for those cases in which an employee is the respondent.

In determining whether the alleged conduct constitutes sexual harassment or assault, the full context in which the alleged incident occurred must be considered. In any case, both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during any disciplinary proceeding. Both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the outcome of any proceeding.

During any sexual assault complaint proceeding, the University has a range of sanctions available. Those sanctions may range from probation to expulsion from the University, depending upon the nature and circumstances of the specific incident.

Sexual Assault Prevention Education Programs

The Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Title IX Office is primarily responsible for sexual assault education and awareness in collaboration with many offices at the University. Together, these offices offer a variety of programming during the academic year which focuses on sexual and gender violence. Below is a list of some of the programs offered by the ECSU:

- Student Information & Awareness Programs
  - Stalking Awareness & Suicide Prevention
  - Date Rape
  - Dating Violence & Sexual Assault
  - Staying Safe on Campus
  - Alcohol, Drugs and Sexual Assault Prevention Fair
- Welcome Back Weekend Seminar – The seminar will educate students about the elements of a healthy relationship, the importance of sexual consent and the role of bystanders in creating safe and healthy communities.
- Freshmen Survival Skills – The Counseling Center and the Viking Voyage Leader utilize peer theatre and a video to discuss the topics of sexual assault, sexual harassment and bystander intervention.
- Substance Abuse Committee – Committee of Faculty, Staff and Student leaders who promote substance abuse and sexual assault awareness through programs and fairs.

Safe and Positive Options for Bystander Intervention

Elizabeth City State University offers bystander training intervention course and sessions through the PACE Center. Bystander intervention is about enabling community members to prevent and intervene in violence. In this approach, whole communities are part of the solution to end abuse. Bystander intervention does not always have to be direct and/or confrontational. If you see a friend, acquaintance, or even a stranger in a dangerous situation, you can intervene safely and positively by working together with others to stop the situation, or by indirectly intervening (e.g., turning on the lights at a dark party). Remember that you do not have to respond to violence with violence. Bystander intervention is about stepping up and speaking out to protect others in the community.
Additionally, active bystander intervention can occur before violence even begins. Leading up to every incident of abuse are all kinds of behaviors, words, and actions that can normalize and condone violence in a community. Examples of safe bystander intervention include letting a friend know that a sexist or racist joke is not acceptable, or reminding a colleague or coworker that a victim-blaming remark I will not be tolerated in the workplace.

Additional information on bystander intervention, including information on how to schedule bystander intervention training for an individual or a group, can be found at https://www.ecsu.edu/administration/legal/policymanual/official-policy-manual/Section900/900-4-1-5.pdf.

Sex Offender Registration – Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act

The North Carolina General Assembly created the North Carolina Sex Offender and Public Protection Registry in January 1996. This law outlines registration requirements for persons living in North Carolina, non-resident students and non-resident workers. The Registry serves as a resource to help protect and inform the public.

A list of registered sex offenders is made available by the state authorities to the local law enforcement agency (Elizabeth City Police Department) that has jurisdiction where the institution of higher education is located. For information about registered sex offenders in the State of North Carolina, you may visit the website for the North Carolina Offender Registry at http://sexoffender.ncsbi.gov/ and the U.S. Department of Justice National Sex Offender website at http://www.nsopw.gov/.

CAMPUS SECURITY POLICIES, CRIME PREVENTION & SAFETY AWARENESS PROGRAMS

In addition to the many programs offered by the University Police and other University offices, the University has established a number of policies and procedures related to ensuring a reasonably safe campus community. These policies include:

Behavioral Management Team

In order to extend our efforts on emergency preparedness and prevention, ECSU has established a Behavioral Management Team. The objective of the Behavioral Management Team (BMT) is to put in place a structured process for evaluating potentially threatening situations that occur at the University. The multi-disciplinary team is comprised of members from around the University community. If you would like further information about the members and the purpose of the BMT, please visit the Boards, Councils and Committees webpage http://www.ecsu.edu.

Weapons Policy

ECSU Policy 900.4.1.4 prohibits the possession and use of weapons at ECSU, except as allowed by law. N.C. Gen Stat. § 14-269.2 grants the possession of weapons on state property in the following circumstances:

3. except for direct transfer between the campus residence and the employee's vehicle, the handgun must remain at all times either on the premises of the employee's campus residence or in the closed compartment of the employee's locked vehicle. The employee may unlock the vehicle to enter or exit, but must lock the vehicle immediately following the entrance or exit if his/her handgun is in the vehicle.

Without a Concealed Handgun Permit

If the employee does not have a valid permit to carry a concealed handgun, the employee may have his/her handgun:

1. on the premises of the employee's campus residence; and
2. in the employee's vehicle only when the vehicle is occupied by the employee and the employee is immediately leaving the campus or is driving directly to their campus residence from off campus; and,
3. on the employee's person outside the premises of the employee's campus residence when making a direct transfer of the handgun from the employee's campus residence to the employee's vehicle when the employee is immediately leaving the campus or from the employee's vehicle to the employee's campus residence when the employee is arriving at the campus residence from off campus.

Student Conduct

The Office of Student Affairs

The Division of Student Affairs is organized and administered by the Chief Student Affairs Officer to augment strengthen and support the university’s commitment for the total development of students. Student Affairs provides many opportunities for students to develop personally and socially through active engagement in community service, career exploration, health and fitness, peer mentor education and student life.

The Student Code of Conduct

The Office of the Dean of Students is responsible for administering the Student Code of Conduct, which articulates the behavioral standards and the equitable procedures employed by the University to respond to allegations of student misconduct.

Students who are found responsible for violations may be subject to sanctions ranging from Disciplinary Warning, Disciplinary Probation, to Suspension or Expulsion from the University. Students residing in University housing may also lose the privilege of living on campus for violating University rules and regulations or conditions of the housing contract.

In most cases, the Office of the Dean of Students in conjunction with the Student Counseling Services will also assign developmental and educational interventions designed to promote greater awareness and improved decision-making for students in an effort to deter future misconduct.

In instances where there is reasonable cause to believe a student is an immediate threat to the safety of himself/herself or other persons or property or is an immediate threat to disrupt essential campus operations, the Chief Student Affairs Officer and/or Dean Students may assign an interim action designed to protect the health and safety of the community and members therein. Students are granted the right to appeal the suspension within five days of the decision.

Any individual or entity may submit reports alleging student misconduct to the Office of the Dean of Students or in person by visiting Griffin Hall Suite 200, online using the incident reporting form (https://www.ecsu.edu-safe-file-report.html), or by phone at (252) 335-3276.

The Division of Student Affairs also provides outreach programming designed to inform and educate students and to promote ECSU principles. Please visit the Student Affairs webpage where you can view the Student Handbook at http://www.ecsu.edu-current-students/student-affairs/index.html. Here, you can find the Student Code of Conduct, Parental Notification Procedures, Student Records Policy and links to all policy and procedural guidelines related to the Student Conduct process.

Additional Information Regarding the Student Code of Conduct

ECSU is obligated to provide all students with the University regulations, policies, and procedures governing student conduct. ECSU’s policies and procedures, including the policies referenced in the Code of Conduct for Students, are published in the ECSU Policy Manual located at http://www.ecsu.edu/documents/legal-affairs/policymanual.pdf.

If you have additional questions, special needs, or wish to request a hard copy of this information, please contact the Office of Academic and Student Affairs.

Parental Notification

The University reserves the right to report student discipline information to the parents or legal guardians of students.

Federal legislation authorizes ECSU to disclose disciplinary records concerning violations of the University’s rules and regulations governing the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances that involve students who are under the age of 21 regardless of whether the student is a dependent.

The University may also report non-alcohol or drug related incidents to parents or legal guardians of dependent students under circumstances described in the ECSU Student Policy on Illegal Drugs (500.1.10)and the ECSU Alcoholic Beverage Policy (900.1.3) located in the ECSU Policy Manual and the Student Code of Conduct. Links to both resources were provided in the previous sections.

Missing Student Notification Policy

In accordance with other general institutional emergency notification procedures, when a University student is thought to be missing from the campus, University Police should be immediately notified. Specifically, the Chief of Police or the Supervising Police Officer on duty should be contacted so that they can coordinate efforts to locate the student. This office has the authority and the responsibility for coordinating the efforts made by the University to assist the student’s family in locating the missing student. In addition, University Police will coordinate with the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs to take any appropriate actions deemed necessary after the student is determined to be missing.

If a member of the campus community learns that a student is missing, that person should contact University Police so that a formal missing student report and investigation is properly initiated and documented at University Police.

Annually, each residential student of the University has the option to designate an individual to be contacted by ECSU no later than 24 hours after the time that University Police determines the student is missing. ECSU provides each student with the means and opportunity to register their confidential Missing Student Contact Person by logging into Banner and filling out the Missing Student Contact Person information or filling out the Missing Student Contact Section on the Campus Housing Agreement. This information is only accessible to ECSU employees who are authorized campus officials and this information will not be disclosed to others with the exception of law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing student investigation.
In accordance with the ECSU’s Missing Student Policy, it should be noted that ECSU notifies each student who is under 18 years of age (and not an emancipated individual), that ECSU is required to contact the student’s parents or guardian in addition to the person identified as the missing student contact person. This contact will be made no later than 24 hours after the time that the student is determined to be missing.

In accordance with ECSU procedures, it should be noted that ECSU will inform each residential student that ECSU will notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency or University Police, when a student has gone missing, unless the local law enforcement agency was the entity that made the determination that the student was missing. This notification will be made no later than 24 hours after the time that the student is determined missing.

If University Police has been notified that a student has gone missing, and makes a determination that student who is the subject of a missing person report has been missing for more than 24 hours, ECSU staff will initiate missing student procedures as outlined in ECSU Policy Manual.

A copy of this policy can be found in the ECSU Policy Manual at http://www.ecsu.edu/documents/legal-affairs/policymanual.pdf.

As required in the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, and as outlined in ECSU’s Policy Manual related to missing students, ECSU’s missing student investigative procedures include the following:

- Communication procedures for official notification of appropriate University Police personnel that a student has been missing for more than 24 hours
- Requires any official missing person report relating to a University student to be referred immediately to University Police
- If through the investigation of an official report, University Police determines a student has been missing for more than 24 hours, they will:
  - Contact those individuals provided by the student, as their missing student contact person
  - If a student is under 18 years of age, and not an emancipated minor, ECSU will immediately contact the custodial parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the student, in addition to the student’s missing student contact person.

Students may provide their missing student contact person information on the Campus Housing Lease Agreement as seen below:

Students may also provide their missing student contact person information on the Campus Housing Lease Agreement as seen below:

Daily Crime and Fire Log

University Police maintains a combined Daily Crime and Daily Fire Log of all incidents reported to the Department. University Police publishes an activity log every day, which is available to members of the press and public. This log identifies the type, location, and time of each criminal incident reported to University Police.

The most current 60 days of information is available in the lobby of the University Police Building located at the Thomas-Jenkins Building on Viking Drive. Upon request a copy of any maintained Daily Crime and Fire Log will be made available for viewing, within 48 hours of notice. The Daily Crime and Fire Log is also displayed on the University Police webpage: http://www.ecsu.edu/administration/business/university-police/crime-and-fire-log.html.

In an effort to promote safety awareness, the University offers programming (poster campaign, mocktails, Online training) that directly and indirectly addresses campus safety issues. Programs address, but are not limited to, Alcohol Abuse, prevention & education, recognizing & responding to mental health issues (Depression, Suicide) as well as issues related to relationship, sexual health, and general safety. RECOGNIZE WARNING SIGNS OF ABUSIVE
BEHAVIOR

Relationship violence is defined as any hurtful or unwanted physical, sexual, verbal, or emotional act inflicted by a casual or intimate partner with the intention, either real or perceived, of causing pain or injury on the other partner. Relationship violence can occur in any intimate relationship, regardless of the gender of the perpetrator and/or victim, and affects LGBTQ relationships as well as heterosexual relationships. Relationship violence is about one partner attempting to control the actions, behavior, and emotions of another partner.

Examples of abusive behavior (i.e., “red flags”) in a relationship can include, but are not limited to:

- Being sworn at (verbal)
- Statements such as “nobody else would want you” (verbal)
- Continuous criticism of behavior and/or appearance (verbal)
- Withholding of affection (emotional)
- Manipulation with lies and/or broken promises (emotional)
- Having objects thrown at you (physical)
- Being threatened with a weapon (physical)
- Being hit, bitten, punched, slapped, or shoved (physical)
- Rape (sexual)
- Intense jealousy (sexual)

ECSU has many resources available if you have been or are currently a victim of relationship violence. If you are still in a violent relationship, resources are available to help you safety plan (please see https://www.ecsu.edu/current-students/student-affairs/vikings-against-violence/pace-center/index.html. Additional information on risk reduction and on warning signs of abusive behavior, particularly within the context of relationships, can be found at https://www.ecsu.edu/current-students/student-affairs/vikings-against-violence/pace-center/index.html. The National Dating Abuse Hotline can be reached at 1(866) 331-9474 and offers a variety of services, including peer counseling and text counseling, to determine whether a relationship is healthy and safe.

These policies must respond to complaints concerning Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act. Because of this, the Clery Act and Title IX impact confidentiality limitations and duty-to-report. Please be aware of these when you are speaking with individuals in position of authority on campus. Ask about their duty to report and their confidentiality limitations.

Please note that these laws do also attempt to ensure your confidentiality as far as possible. Your name and any other personally identifying information may not be revealed to any irrelevant University personnel, nor to the general public (University and the broader community).

ECSU POLICIES GOVERNING ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

Federal law requires ECSU to notify annually all faculty, staff, and students that the University prohibits the unlawful possession, use, manufacture or distribution of alcohol or controlled substances by students, faculty, staff, and guests in buildings, facilities, grounds or property controlled by the University or used as part of University activities. For students, this includes prohibiting the possession and consumption of any beverage containing alcohol in a residence hall room. In addition, the smoking of any material is prohibited in all facilities of Elizabeth City State University at all locations.

Crime Prevention Tips

While the ECSU campus is a reasonably safe environment, crimes do occur. In addition to the Clery Act crimes statistics below, other common crimes that occur on campus are outlined below:

DRUG-FREE Workplace

ECSU is required to certify that it is providing a drug-free workplace as a result of receiving federal funds. Any employee reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs or using alcohol or illegal drugs on the job is subject to appropriate disciplinary action. In addition to the ECSU’s Illegal Drugs Policy, the University is required to adhere to all federal policies. It is extremely important that you are aware of the policies on illegal drugs and alcohol, which have been implemented by the federal government and the University’s governing bodies.

Areas Open to the Public

ECSU prohibits the possession and use of alcoholic beverages in areas open to the public, including, the outside of buildings open to the public. However, the use of alcoholic beverages subject to the laws of North Carolina may be permitted at ECSU sponsored activities in areas designated by, and with the prior approval of, the Chancellor.

Private or Closed Areas

The possession and use of alcoholic beverages are prohibited in conference rooms, offices, office reception rooms, closed buildings, and areas of buildings not open to the public or from which the public has been excluded, except: the use of alcoholic beverages, subject to the laws of North Carolina, may be permitted in specific private or closed areas designated by, and with the prior approval of, the Chancellor.

Education and Research Areas

ECSU specifically prohibits the use, possession and dispensing of alcoholic beverages in classrooms, lecture halls, laboratories, libraries, research areas, or within buildings, areas where there are lectures or concerts are held. Permission will not be granted to use or possess alcoholic beverages in a facility which is being used for one of the above functions unless with the express prior approval of the Chancellor. (Please consult the ECSU Alcoholic Beverage Policy (900.1.3) for more information https://www.ecsu.edu/current-students/student-affairs/vikings-against-violence/pace-center/index.html).

Policies Specific to Elizabeth City State University Students

Any student who violates this ECSU Alcoholic Beverage Policy (900.1.3), the Student policy on Illegal Drugs (500.1.10), or the ECSU Residence Life Drugs, Smoke, and Alcohol Zero Tolerance Policy (500.2.3) is subject to disciplinary action including sanctions as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct in addition to any penalties resulting from violating local, state and or federal law. Disciplinary sanctions may include: Students who are found responsible for violations may be subject to sanctions ranging from Fines, Disciplinary Warnings, Disciplinary Probation, to Suspension or Expulsion from the University. Students residing in University housing may also lose the privilege of living on campus for violating University rules and regulations or conditions of the housing contract. In most cases the Office of the Dean of Students will also assign developmental and educational interventions designed to promote greater awareness and improved decision-making for students and to further deter future misconduct.
The ECSU Residence Life Drugs, Smoke and Alcohol Zero Tolerance Policy (500.2.3) can be found in the ECSU Policy Manual at https://www.ecsu.edu/documents/legal-affairs/policy-manual_old2.pdf.

Alcohol & Illegal Substances

Alcohol Policy

The possession of or use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited in all University on-campus undergraduate residence hall buildings. It is a violation of state law and university policy for a student under 21 years of age to attempt to purchase, consume, possess, or transport alcoholic beverages. It is unlawful to sell, furnish, and give alcoholic beverages or to permit alcoholic beverages to be sold, furnished, or given to any minor.

Students are prohibited from any tailgating activities in the residential quad areas or residence hall parking lots where alcoholic beverages are being served on any football game/event weekend including all home football games. Students tailgating with alcoholic beverages in these defined areas will be confronted and will likely be charged with "open alcoholic containers."

Residents will be held responsible for activities that occur in their rooms, and will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or University Police if guests are violating state law and the on-campus alcohol policies listed above.

Failure to comply with the direction or to present identification to University Officials acting in the performance of their duties is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and will result in a referral to University Officials acting in the performance of their duties.

Illegal Substances (Drugs)

It is a violation of state law and university policy to illegally possess, use, distribute, manufacture, sell or be under the influence of other drugs. Students who violate this policy will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or University Police.

It is against residence hall policy for a student to be in a residential area (room, common area, common building, building entryway, or quad area immediately adjacent to the residence halls) and in the presence of an illegal substance. Students who are in the presence of an illegal substance in these areas will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and/or University Police.

(1) A fraudulent or altered drivers license.
(2) A fraudulent or altered identification document other than a drivers license.
(3) A drivers license issued to another person.
(4) An identification document other than a drivers license issued to another person.
(5) Any other form or means of identification that indicates or symbolizes that the person is not prohibited from purchasing or possessing alcoholic beverages under this section.

(f) Allowing Use of Identification. - It shall be unlawful for any person to permit the use of the person's drivers license or any other form of identification of any kind issued or given to the person by any other person who violates or attempts to violate subsection (b) of this section.

The North Carolina General Statute as follows:

Intoxication

Intoxication leads to other behaviors and important health concerns. In some cases, Intoxication contributes to many criminal mischiefs and disorderly conducts on campus. Persons must be responsible for their own actions and know their limits and tolerance levels before consuming alcohol.

The North Carolina General Statute is as follows:

§ 14-444. Intoxicated and disruptive in public.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person in a public place to be intoxicated and disruptive in any of the following ways:

(1) Blocking or otherwise interfering with traffic on a highway or public vehicular area, or
(2) Blocking or lying across or otherwise preventing or interfering with access to or passage across a sidewalk or entrance to a building, or
(3) Grabbing, shoving, pushing or fighting others or challenging others to fight, or
(4) Cursing or shouting at or otherwise rudely insulting others, or
(5) Begging for money or other property.

(b) Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 7A-273(1), a magistrate is not empowered to accept a guilty plea and enter judgment for this offense.

Driving While Impaired (DWI) & Refusing a Chemical Test

In North Carolina the illegal level for DWI is .08% Blood Alcohol Content (BAC). Also, drivers with any amount of a Schedule I, II, or III controlled substance not medically prescribed (or their metabolites) may not drive, operate, or be in actual physical control of a vehicle. Any person who drives a motor vehicle automatically gives consent to one or more chemical test (e.g. breath, blood, or urine). If a person refuses to submit to a chemical test: 1) the test will not be done; 2) the person's license will be suspended for one year; 3) the person will most likely be charged with DWI.

The North Carolina General Statute is as follows:

§ 20-138.1. Impaired driving.

(a) Offense. - A person commits the offense of impaired driving if he drives any vehicle upon any highway, any street, or any public vehicular area within this State:

(1) While under the influence of an impairing substance; or
(2) After having consumed sufficient alcohol that he has, at any relevant time after the driving, an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more. The results of a chemical analysis shall be deemed sufficient evidence to prove a person's alcohol concentration; or
(3) With any amount of a Schedule I controlled substance, as listed in G.S. 90-89, or its metabolites in his blood or urine.

(a1) A person who has submitted to a chemical analysis of a blood sample, pursuant to G.S. 20-138.1(d), may use the result in rebuttal as evidence that the person did not have, at a relevant time after driving, an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more.

ECBU Alcoholic Beverage Policy

It prohibits to possess or consume alcohol while on ECSU campus, except at approved events. Penalties for employees could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Penalties for students may include fines and in some cases expulsion from the University. Please review the Alcoholic Beverage Policy (900.1.3) in the ECSU Policy Manual located at https://www.ecsu.edu/documents/legal-affairs/policy-manual_old2.pdf.

Federal and North Carolina Drug Related Offenses

Federal Illegal Drug Laws

Federal law penalizes the manufacture, distribution, possession with intent to manufacture or distribute, and simple possession of drugs ("controlled substances"). Federal penalties and sanctions for the simple possession of a controlled substance are quite severe. The law sets forth sentences and fines that include the following:

- First conviction: up to one-year imprisonment, a fine of at least $1,000, or both. After one prior drug conviction: at least 15 days in prison, not to exceed two years, and a fine of at least $2,500. After two or more prior drug convictions: at least 90 days in prison, not to exceed three years, and a fine of at least $5,000. A special, harsher sentencing provision applies for possession of flunitrazepam (Rohypnol) (21 U.S.C. §844(a))
- Forfeiture of personal and real property used to possess or to facilitate possession of a controlled substance if that offense is punishable by more than one-year imprisonment, as well as forfeiture of vehicles, boats, aircraft, or any other conveyance used to transport or conceal a controlled substance. (21 U.S.C. §§853(a) & 881(a))
• Denial of federal benefits, such as student loans, grants, contracts, and professional and commercial licenses, up to five years for the first offense, up to 10 years for the second offense, and permanently upon the third offense. (21 U.S.C. §862)

• Ineligibility to receive or purchase a firearm. (18 U.S.C. §922(g))

Moreover, revocation of certain federal licenses and benefits (e.g., pilot licenses, public housing tenancy) are vested within the authorities of individual federal agencies.

These penalties may be doubled, however, when a person at least 18 years old: (1) distributes a controlled substance to a person under 21 years of age (a term of imprisonment for this offense shall not be less than one year), and/or (2) distributes, possesses with intent to distribute, or manufactures a controlled substance in or on, or within 1,000 feet of, the real property comprising a public or private elementary or secondary school, or a public or private college. (21 U.S.C. §§859 & 860)

Federal penalties and sanctions for trafficking in controlled substances are considerably more severe than those outlined previously for simple possession. The Drug Enforcement Agency outlined the federal drug trafficking penalties covered under the Controlled Substance Act on their webpage at https://www.dea.gov/druginfo/csa.shtml.

Alcohol & Drugs Health Risks

Alcohol: This depressant slows down your heart, nervous system, and brain, and high doses of alcohol can cause you to stop breathing. Prolonged immediate use can cause artery disease, heart failure, and liver damage including cancer, cirrhosis, and hepatitis. Women may develop alcohol-related health problems sooner than men, and from drinking less alcohol than men. Because alcohol affects nearly every organ in the body, long-term heavy drinking increases the risk for many serious health problems.

Marijuana: Because it damages short-term memory and decreases concentration and learning abilities, marijuana is particularly detrimental to students. It contains more than 400 chemicals and has 2 ½ times as much tar as tobacco. Extensive research has been devoted to studying the dangers and potential harm associated with the use of this drug. Research shows that marijuana users experience the same health problems as tobacco smokers, such as bronchitis, emphysema, bronchial asthma, and throat and lung cancer; tend to have more chest colds than non-users; and are at greater risk of getting lung infections like pneumonia. Studies show that someone who smokes five joints per day may be taking in as many cancer-causing chemicals as someone who smokes a full pack of cigarettes every day. Effects also include increased heart rate, dryness of the mouth, reddening of the eyes, and impaired motor skills, and concentration.

Anabolic steroids: Steroids have side effects ranging from insomnia to death. Using them increases your risk of cancer and cardiovascular, kidney, and liver disease. Users may exhibit aggressive, combative behavior, and use may cause impotence, sterility, or fetal damage.

Amphetamines: These drugs cause acute psychoses and malnutrition. They also can make you nervous, hyperactive, and sleepless and can elevate your pulse rate and blood pressure.

Methamphetamines: Meth is a highly addictive drug that targets the functioning of the central nervous system. Short term effects include increased wakefulness, increased physical activity, decreased appetite, increased respiration, rapid heartbeat, irregular heartbeat, increased blood pressure, hypothermia, irritability, paranoia, insomnia, confusion, tremors, and aggressiveness. Long term health effects include irreversible damage to blood vessels in the brain, stroke, severe reduction in motor skills with symptoms similar to those of Parkinson’s disease, impaired verbal learning, memory impairment, and decreased ability to regulate emotions. Many of the long term effects persist after use of the drug is discontinued.

Barbiturates: Both psychologically and physically addictive, these drugs can cause death in high doses. Infants born to barbiturate users may suffer congenital deformities. Other effects include nausea, dizziness, lethargy, allergic reactions, and possible breathing difficulties.

Cocaine: Anyone who uses cocaine—even a first-time user—may have seizures, heart fibrillation, and strokes that can result in death. Habitual users experience irritability, paranoia, and hallucinations. Use causes tumors, chronic fatigue, dangerous weight loss, sexual impotence, and insomnia and affects respiration, blood pressure, and blood sugar levels.

Heroin and opium: An overdose of these psychologically and physiologically addictive drugs can cause death. Users feel sluggish and fall asleep at inappropriate and dangerous times. Intravenous users risk contracting Hepatitis, HIV/AIDS, and other infections.

LSD: LSD causes hallucinations, perception distortions, and anxiety. Users cannot function normally and are accident-prone. LSD also can cause elevated body temperature and respiration and a rapid heartbeat.

MDMA (Ecstasy): This drug produces both stimulant and psychedelic effects including increased heart rate, elevated blood pressure, nervousness, and hyperactivity. Because users may experience feelings of increased confidence, sensitivity, arousal, and confusion, use of Ecstasy makes them more vulnerable to crime, especially robbery, sexual assault, and other unwanted sexual encounters.

Oxycodone and other narcotics: These are safe and effective treatments for pain when prescribed by a doctor and used as directed. However, they are opioids, and therefore are psychologically and physiologically addictive. They can cause death by stopping breathing. Because of their medical uses, these drugs are frequently manufactured in a time-release (sustained-release, long-acting, extended-release) form. If users circumvent the time-release formulation, they may take a larger dose than intended, overdose, and suffer serious complications or death. Combining narcotics with alcohol or other drugs significantly increases the risk to life and well-being.

Psilocybin: This substance, found in certain mushrooms, causes hallucinations and perception distortions. Users cannot function normally and are accident-prone. This drug also can produce anxiety, elevated body temperature, rapid heartbeat, and elevated respiration.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

While the ECSU campus is a reasonably safe environment, crimes do occur. In addition to the Clery Act crimes statistics below, other common crimes that occur on campus are outlined below:

Thrift

Thrift is a common occurrence on college campuses. Oftentimes this is due to the fact thrift is a crime of opportunity. Confined living arrangements, recreation facilities, and many open classrooms and laboratories provide thieves with effortless opportunities. Occupants of the residence halls often feel a sense of security and home atmosphere and become too trusting of their peers, while others leave classrooms and laboratories unlocked when not occupied for short periods of time.

• It is important to be very vigilant when it comes to suspicious persons. Never leave items and valuables lying around unsecured. Doors should be locked at all times. The following is a list of suggestions to help you not fall victim of theft:
  • Keep doors to residence halls, labs, classrooms locked when not occupied
  • Don’t provide access to unauthorized persons in the buildings or classrooms
  • Do not keep large amounts of money with you.
  • Lock all valuables, money, jewelry, checkbooks in a lock box or locked drawer

• Keep a list of all valuable possessions including the makes, models, and serial numbers
• Take advantage of the Engraving Programs to have all valuables engraved with specific identifying marks
• Don’t leave laptop computers or textbooks unattended in labs or libraries, even if it is for a short period of time
• Don’t lend credit cards or identification cards to anyone
• Report loitering persons or suspicious persons to police immediately; don’t take any chances

Identity Theft

Identity theft is a crime in which someone wrongfully obtains and uses another person's personal information in some ways that involve fraud or deception, typically for economic gain. This personal data could be a Social Security number, bank account or credit card information.

Persons involved in identity theft often use computers or other forms of media to assist them.

There are measures you can take to prevent this from happening to you:

• Do not give anyone your personal information unless there is a reason to trust them and the release is for good reason.
• Never give your credit card information, date of birth, or other information over the telephone, unless you can confirm the person receiving that information.
• Complete a credit check frequently to assure there is no suspicious activity.
• Examine financial information often to assure all transactions are authorized and accounted for.
• Use of computer security software on computers and installation of firewalls are good.

Clery Act Crimes

Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC § 1092(f)) requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. The University Police maintains a close relationship with all police departments where ECSU owns or controls property to ensure that crimes reported directly to these police departments that involve the University are brought to the attention of the University Police.

The University Police collects the crime statistics disclosed in the charts through a number of methods. Police dispatchers and officers enter all reports of crime incidents made directly to the department through an integrated computer aided-dispatch systems/records management system. After an officer enters the report in the system, a department administrator reviews the report to ensure it is appropriately classified in the correct crime category. The Department periodically examines the data to ensure that all reported crimes are recorded in accordance with the crime definitions outlined in the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook and the FBI National Incident-Based Reporting System Handbook (sex offenses only). In addition to the crime data that the University Police maintains, the statistics below also include crimes that are reported to various campus security authorities, as defined in this report. The statistics reported here generally reflect the number of criminal incidents reported to the various authorities. The statistics reported for the sub categories on liquor laws, drug laws and weapons offenses represented the number of people arrested or referred to campus judicial authorities for respective violations, not the number of offenses documented.

ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORT

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 14, 2008, requires institutions that maintain on-campus student housing facilities to publish an annual fire safety report that contains information about campus fire safety practices and standards of the institution. The following report details all information required by this act for ECSU.

Definitions

The following terms are used within this report. Definitions have been obtained from the Higher Education Opportunity Act:

On-Campus Student Housing – A student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution, and is within a reasonable contiguous area that makes up the campus.

Fire – Any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.

Residence Hall Fire Drills

Quarterly fire drills are conducted in all on-campus residence halls during the school year to allow occupants to become familiar with and practice their evacuation skills. The drills are conducted by the Office of Emergency Management and University Police.

Fire Safety

ECSU takes Fire Safety very seriously and continues to enhance its programs to the university community through education, engineering and enforcement. Educational programs are presented throughout the year to faculty, staff and students so they are aware of the rules and safe practices. These programs, which are available at all campus locations, include identification and prevention of fire hazards, actual building evacuation procedures and drills, specific occupant response to fire emergencies and hands-on use of fire extinguishers.

All University residence halls have emergency evacuation plans and conduct frequent fire drills during the school year to allow occupants to become familiar with and practice their evacuation skills.

ECSU has been a leader in ensuring the safety of students, faculty, staff and visitors who live and work in university operated residences. Automatic sprinkler systems and fire alarm systems are recognized engineered building features that help to provide for a fire safe living environment. All University operated residence halls and apartments are provided with automatic sprinkler systems, smoke detectors and building fire alarm systems to provide early detection and warning of a possible fire emergency. Additionally, Food Service staff members at the University are trained on emergency procedures in the event of a fire.

ECSU maintains and tests all fire alarms and automatic fire suppression systems in accordance with the appropriate National Fire Protection Association Standard to insure system readiness and proper operation in the event of a fire emergency.

ECSU has adopted and developed numerous Safety Policies and Guidelines to help promote a safe living and working environment at the University. These guidelines and other fire safety information can be accessed at www.ecsu.edu/administration/business/university-police/emergency-management/index.html.

Additional protection is provided by University Police Officers who are trained for initial response to fire incidents occurring at University facilities. Officers provide assistance in building evacuation and extinguishment / confinement of small fires. In addition, laboratory safety and evacuation plans are also part of the Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) mission. EHS is dedicated to maintaining the safety of our community by conducting annual inspections, plan reviews, and ensuring evacuation drills are in all laboratories on campus.

Fire Safety Education and Training Programs for Students, Faculty and Staff

Environmental Health and Safety (EHS), in coordination with Housing & Residence Life and Food Service, provides annual training to Resident Assistants (RA), Residential Security Officers and Community Directors.

Topics addressed during this training include:

- Fire prevention in the residence hall
- What to do in the event of a fire
- How to report a fire or other emergency
- How residence hall fire safety systems operate

Resident Assistants and Community Directors coordinate additional fire safety training and education programs for residence hall students. The following webpage lists the Upcoming Training and Announcements for all Fire Safety Training efforts:

Other general safety and fire safety information is available to students, faculty and staff on the Environmental Health and Safety website at http://www.ecsu.edu/administration/business/university-police/emergency-management/index.html.

Fire Evacuation

In the event of a fire, the University expects that all campus community members will evacuate by the nearest exit, closing doors and activating the fire alarm system (if one is present) as they leave. Once safely outside a building, it is appropriate to contact 911 and the University Police by dialing 911. Students and/or staff are informed where to relocate to by staff if circumstance warrants at the time of the alarm. In the event fire alarms sound, University policy requires that all occupants must evacuate from the building, closing doors as they leave. No training is provided to students or employees in firefighting or suppression activity as this is inherently dangerous and each community member's only duty is to exit safely and quickly, shutting doors along the exit path as they go to contain the spread of flames and smoke, and to activate the alarm as they exit. At no time should the closing of doors or the activation of the alarm delay the exit from the building.
Fire Incident Reporting

Students, faculty and staff are instructed to call 911 to report a fire emergency.

Non-emergency notifications (e.g. evidence that something burned) are made to University Police (252) 335-3266.

Inspections and Prohibited Items

The Office of Housing & Residence Life performs Residence Hall Health and Safety Inspections four to five times a year in the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters. Inspections may be at random or announced. Residence Life inspections are primarily designed to find and eliminate safety violations. Students are required to read and comply with all the Housing & Residence Life Policies, which include inspection and other rules and regulations for residential buildings. The inspections include, but are not limited to, a visual examination of electrical cords, sprinkler heads, smoke detectors, fire extinguishers and other life safety systems.

In addition, each room will be examined for the presence of prohibited items (e.g., sources of open flames, such as candles; non-surge protected extension cords; halogen lamps; portable cooking appliances in non-kitchen areas; etc.) or prohibited activity (e.g., smoking in the room; tampering with life safety equipment; possession of pets; etc.). This inspection will also include a general assessment of food and waste storage and cleanliness of the room. Prohibited items will be immediately disabled with a locking device or confiscated and donated/discarded if found, without reimbursement.

Plans for Future Improvements in Fire Safety

ECSU continues to monitor trends related to residence hall fire incidents and alarms to provide a fire safe living environment for all students. New programs and policies are developed as needed to help ensure the safety of all students, faculty and staff.
