Greetings ECSU Alumni and Friends,

Welcome to Homecoming 2015 – Viking Pride @ the “E”!
This year we want to showcase our Viking pride with enhanced vigor and spirit.

Just over a month ago, we welcomed a cohort of energetic and spirited freshmen - the Class of 2019. As you know from your own time on our illustrious campus, these are the formative years for our students. Every moment, interaction, and conversation can make a lasting impression on their ECSU experience. Faculty members are imparting knowledge in the classroom, peers are building lasting friendships, and staff is working to ensure a well-rounded student experience. But, it is you, our alumni, whose Viking pride and generous spirit exemplify what it means to be an ECSU graduate.

Vikings, I am proud of the great strides we’ve made during our first year on our Path to Prominence. Our campus is lined with new flags highlighting our ECSU pride, our new cohort enrollment has increased, and our academic initiatives are helping us to reach our goal of becoming North Carolina’s premier interdisciplinary science university. In fact, for the fourth consecutive year, we were ranked first on Washington Monthly’s list of ‘Best Baccalaureate Colleges.’

So, I look forward to welcoming you this week to celebrate our achievements together and all that is to come! Let’s make our voices heard at Roebuck Stadium to cheer our Mighty Vikings to a victory on the gridiron!

Sincerely,

Stacey Franklin Jones

Greetings ECSU Alumni and Friends,

On behalf of the ECSU NAA, Incorporated, I extend a hearty welcome to all alumni and friends who are visiting ECSU for a homecoming week of celebration and fun. Whether you are here for a reunion or just to participate in the festive events planned for your enjoyment, we promise there is something for everyone including the Mr. Alumni Coronation, honoring this year’s winner, Nathaniel Grant, Jr. (’68); the Alumni Icebreaker, showcasing Ra Jazz Band, DJ Heart Attack, and Comedians Cletus Kassidy and Quincy Carr; the Saturday Night Cabaret, featuring a Dynasty Five party that will be beyond expectations.

The main attraction, however, will be the gridiron battle between the Lincoln University Lions and ECSU Vikings. With Viking Pride exemplified, a Mighty Vikings victory is inevitable.

We will end our activities on Sunday with a prayer breakfast, which will include the soul-stirring music of the Alumni Choir and an inspirational message that will truly lift your spirits. Don’t miss it!

Enjoy the weekend! Remember to stay connected, be involved, and give back.

With Viking pride,

Jeanette H. Evans, ’63
National President

Nathaniel Grant, Jr., known fondly to many as Nate Grant, Jr., is a true and lifelong ambassador for Elizabeth City State University (ECSU). Mr. Grant graduated from ECSU in 1968 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education. He earned a Master’s degree in Health Education at Southern Connecticut State College, as well as a Sixth Year Certificate in Supervision and Administration.

Mr. Grant had a long and distinguished career as an educator. He retired after 33 years as a teacher and principal at Bunker Hill Elementary School in Waterbury, Connecticut. Throughout, he was notably involved with ECSU and its National Alumni Association. He is currently vice-chair of the alumni association board.

Mr. Grant founded ECSU’s New England Alumni Chapter, where he was president until 1999. When he returned to North Carolina, he reorganized the Tri-County Alumni Chapter in Rocky Mount and has been president of that chapter since 2000. Over the years, he has often been involved in student recruitment activities for the university.

Mr. Grant is also a member of the Viking Varsity Club and a generous financial supporter of ECSU athletics. Each year, he is a key participant in the planning for the Down East Viking Football Classic in Rocky Mount. Mr. Grant also enjoys his yearly role as a master chef for the Tri-County Alumni Chapter’s Annual Tailgating gathering at that event.

Homecoming is a great and memorable time for the Elizabeth City State University Community. To help you enjoy the Viking Pride Spirit of Homecoming, here are some safety tips for you, your friends and your family members.

Personal Safety

1. Wear comfortable shoes and appropriate clothing. With limited parking, walking is the preferred way to get to most of the events on campus.
2. If in a group, have a designated meeting point or a re-unification plan in case of emergency.
3. If you intend to consume alcohol and can legally do so (age 21+ and at a permitted event), make sure you have a designated driver and a way to safely return home.
4. Use the “Buddy System.” When with friends at a party or event, agree to watch out for each other and leave the event together.
5. Always avoid walking alone in isolated areas, such as parking lots and taking shortcuts.
6. Be aware of what is going on around you at all times. If you suspect you are being followed, indicate your suspicion by looking behind you. Change your direction or vary your speed. Call University Police from your cell phone. Do not confront anyone following you.
7. If confronted by someone trying to victimize you, try to obtain a good physical description of the subject to give to the police.

Property Safety

1. Keep personal identification and credit cards to a minimum on your person.
2. Always secure your residence hall doors and windows. Do not prop doors open or leave unlocked for any period of time.
3. Do not allow unauthorized persons to enter into residence halls behind you. Report unauthorized visitors immediately to the residence hall officials and University Police.
4. Secure all valuables in the trunk of vehicles, not in the visible passenger area of the vehicle.

Report All Crime and Suspicious Activity To University Police

252-335-3266 or in an emergency dial 911, Central Communications
